THE ORIGIN of MÜNKHILDA

This graphic seemed to jump fully-formed like Minerva from my mind, and it's still one of my favorite things I've ever done. Kelly needed a striking and unique image for her artist showcase, Alter Ego. She frequently features her dog, Monkey the Dog, in the promotional graphics for her own comedy and music. While looking through a gallery of Monkey's photos I wondered, "What would be the Alter Ego of this couch-surfing beagle?" And lo, Mönkhilda was born.
